July 30th, 2008

I am writing this letter of endorsement to compliment the exceptional and noteworthy musical talents of: Tony Antonucci.

I have been a professional music performer for more than thirty years and for more than twenty of those years, I have also been a music manager and booking agent. Through the years I have represented and booked some of the finest entertainers in the music industry, including celebrity performers. For some time now, I have booked Mr. Antonucci to multiple music bookings in the Kansas City area. His most recent booking was scheduled on June 6th, 2008, at the trendy, President Hilton Hotel in downtown Kansas City. The client was from the high-profile law firm of "Shugart, Thomson & Kilroy", and the event was a retirement celebration of their Chairman of the Board.

When the client called for a music entertainer, they requested a professional that could perform Vegas-style music and wanted the entertainer to also sing a custom parody of the song: My Way. I immediately thought of Mr. Antonucci and arranged the booking.

Tony performed the show, and within one week, my Company received a response from the client. They were not only thrilled with Tony's performance, but they also gave him a standing ovation at the evening performance. The client also filled out a detailed questionnaire regarding Tony's performance and raved about everything he did.

I also scheduled a music booking on February 9th, 2008, for Mr. Antonucci to perform the Macy's Valentines Day Celebration in Overland Park, Kansas. Normally, I don't hear any client's response until after the performance. In Tony's case, the General Manager contacted me during his show and was overwhelmed with his professionalism. The client assured me that they wanted to book him again to any and all entertainment events they schedule through each year.

It is refreshing to know that there are still performers who give it their all and turn any performance into a special moment of music.

My compliments to Tony Antonucci, one of the best and most professional performers I book.
